I really loved Pretty Little Devils the first time I read and I have read PLL and I have watched the show. In my opinion, Pretty Little Devils was a lot better and more concise because it was one book and you got answers a lot more quickly than in PLL. Frankly, I'm sick of PLL with their half confessions and drawing things out.

The little boy whom Wiltrud had borne to her unfaithful husband was hateful to the second wife, who fondled her lord, and flattered him with the hope of the children she would bear him. Then it was arranged that the knight's first-born should be handed over to the care of an old crone who lived in a remote tower of the castle.
